

FIFTEENTH LEGISLATURE.

SKETCHES OF LEGISLATORS

AND STATE OFFICERS

1876-1878.

BY JOHN CARDWELL.

AUSTIN, TEXAS:
DEMOCRATIC STATESMAN STEAM PRINT.
1876.

SEVENTY-FOURTH DISTRICT.

Counties.—Llano, Burnet, San Saba, McCulloch and Concho.

REPRESENTATIVE NORTON MOSES was born in the State of Georgia, moved to Texas 30 years ago, and is now 52 years of age. He is a man of family, and resides at Strickling, in Burnet county.

Mr. Moses has not been an office seeker, though his people have at times desired his services in the Legislature; held the office of county commissioner of Burnet county from 1864 to 1865, and became the subject of attack and removal by the military under Governor A. J. Hamilton; has always been a consistent Democrat; was nominated by the Democracy of his district for a seat in the lower house of the Fifteenth Legislature; had no opposition worthy of notice, and may therefore be regarded as the unanimous choice of his district.

He conducts a land agency at Strickling, and also applies himself to agricultural pursuits.
